

Winslow Notes.

From the Mail.

On Saturday last while going through the yard engine 1670 was cornered by some freight cars resulting in the disabling of the engine and the injury of Fireman W. E. Oswald and Conductor M. E. Simonson. The fireman's legs were severely bruised but at last accounts he was getting along nicely and expected to be out in a few days. Conductor Simonson had his arm bruised but his injuries did not prevent him from continuing at work.

O. B. Sutton, for some time past assistant cashier of the Navajo County Bank, has resigned his position with that institution and is now interested in the sheep industry, having taken an interest with W. W. Perkins. Mr. Sutton left for Flagstaff last Saturday morning.

Sheriff Joe Woods and family of Holbrook passed through here Monday enroute for the Phoenix fair. Mr. Woods was one of the lucky Democrats to be re-elected in Navajo county.—Flagstaff Gem

W. R. VanWinkle, for some time past round-house foreman for the Santa Fe at Ash Fork, has been transferred to the shops at Winslow and has again taken up his residence here.

Street Supervisor Shuffin has been busily engaged during the past week doing some needed repairs on the town streets as well as attending to the cleaning of some of the alleys.

A. F. McAllister, County Recorder, spent Thursday in Winslow visiting with his numerous friends.

Mrs. W. H. Burbage, of Los Angeles, visited with her husband here during the past week.

At the recent election, Nov. 3, the following were the successful candidates in Coconino county: Territorial Council, F. S. Breen, R; Territorial Assembly, T. J. Coalter, R; Sheriff, J. W. Francis, D; District Attorney, E. M. Doe, R; Probate Judge, R. J. Kidd, R; Recorder, Jesse L. Boyce, D; Treasurer, J. L. Treat, R; School Superintendent, J. E. Jones, D; Supervisors, W. G. Dickinson, D; L. D. Yaeger, D; Surveyor, J. A. Lamport, R; Justice of the Peace, J. O. Harrington, R; Constable, I. F. Wheeler, R. For Delegate to Congress, Ralph Cameron received a majority of 190 over Mark Smith.

Prosperity For All

The knights of the dusty roads and brake beams hail with delight the return to active service of 313,000 freight cars of the 413,000 idle in April. Prosperity smiles for all alike.—Washington Post.

The Arizona Legislature Largely Democratic

In Both Branches Democrats Have 28 Members and the Republicans 8 Members.

Unless the official count makes important changes, the next legislature of Arizona, which meets in January, will be strongly Democratic in both branches. It looks now as if there will be ten Democrats and two Republicans in the upper house and eighteen Democrats and six Republicans in the lower branch.

In Cochise county, there is still some question, whether Neil Bailey, Democrat, or E. J. Shearer, Republican, has been selected, with the chances largely in favor of Bailey.

In Maricopa county, J. W. Woolf still remains five votes ahead of Roy Goodrich, and unless the official count makes a change, Woolf has been chosen.

If no changes are made in the legislative returns received up to day the Democrats will have twenty-eight members of the two branches and the Republicans only eight. It will be possible for the Democrats to pass any measure they desire to a two-thirds vote.

According to the best information obtainable, those who have been elected to the two branches of the legislature are as follows:

Council—Democrats, 10; Republicans 2.

Assembly—Democrats, 18; Republicans, 6.

The personal of the council will be as follows:

Apache—S. E. Day, R.
Mohave—Keen St. Charles, D.
Coconino—Fred S. Breen, R.
Yavapai—M. G. Burns, D.
Navajo—William Morgan, D.
Maricopa—Eugene Brady O'Neil, D.
Pinal—Thomas F. Weedon, D.
Yuma—George W. Norton, D.
Gila—G. W. P. Hunt, D.
Graham—John R. Hampton, D.
Cochise—Ben Goodrich, D.
Pima—Santa Cruz—James B. Finley, D.
In the assembly a list of the members is as follows:

Mohave—S. W. Tobey, D.
Navajo—Joseph Peterson, D.
Yuma—R. A. Hightower, D.
Gila—John McCormack, D.
Pinal—G. L. Shaw, R.; A. R. Coleman, D.

GOLD LONG IN STORAGE.

At Talientun in Manchuria 300,000 gold bars have been found in a storage, which are believed to have been hidden since the Ming dynasty (1368-1644).

The magistrate of Tichling has reported the matter to Viceroy Hsu Shihchang at Mukden.

LOOKING DOWN.

"What place is that?" asked the aeronaut, indicating a city.

The pilot studied it with his glass. "Louisville," he announced.

"How do you know?"

"There's a mint bed in every back yard," the pilot explained.
